

My academic foundation in computer technology and management supplied me with a strong foundation in application development and project management. I am enthusiastic about developing beautiful work, and take great care every step of the way to pay attention to detail, while focusing on the solution. I am passionate about all aspects of Agile Software Development environment and continuously learning cutting-edge technologies and techniques.

Education

Bachelor of Business Administration in Management Information Systems

Fox School of Business at Temple University
Philadelphia, PA (2005 – 2008), GPA: 3.6

The study with the focus on research related to the development, implementation, management, and impact of information systems. This program aims to educate a forward thinking worker that can ethically implement, direct, and research leading edge business applications of information technology.

Theory and Methodology of Teaching Foreign Languages

Department of Linguistics and International Communications
South Ural State University
Chelyabinsk, Russia (2001-2003)

The study that focuses on the formal analysis of the structure of language within the broader context of human communication supplied by the departmental core. A program with the concentration in the English language.

Technical Skills and Buzzwords

Languages: HTML, XHTML, PHP, CSS

Frameworks: Django, jQuery, YUI, Blueprint, 960, CleverCSS

Databases: PostgreSQL, SQLite, MySQL

Version Control: Git, Mercurial, SVN

Deployment: Apache, Pip, Virtualenv

CMS: Django CMS, Shopify, Wordpress, Joomla!

Operating Systems: OSX, Windows

Graphic Tools: Adobe CS4 (Photoshop, Illustrator, Fireworks, InDesign)

Miscellaneous: SEO, typography, UI design, Unix command line, Agile Software Development, pair programming, cutting-edge technologies, open source tools

Work Experience

Insatsu, Philadelphia, PA / Taos, NM (2006 to present) | <http://insatsu.us>

Freelance collective focusing on web development and design

Position: Front-end web developer and designer

- Manage client relationship and timely deliver a wide variety of projects
- Design and maintain software and websites
- Design print material and software user interfaces

TravelTools, Philadelphia, PA (February 2009 to December 2009) |

<http://staging.abouttraveltools.com/maps>

Work Experience (continued)

Startup company intent on providing innovative solutions for the online tourism industry

Position: Front-end web developer and UI designer

- Take the lead role in all aspects of front-end development and decisions regarding UI
- Work closely with back-end developers
- Wireframe UI using Adobe Fireworks

Untra Corporation, Philadelphia, PA (April 2008 to March 2009) | <http://untra.com>

Company that provides customized information technology solutions for businesses

Position: Web developer and designer

- Built and designed websites using CMS
- Wrote HTML and CSS based on the design specifications
- Wrote custom modules in PHP
- Communicated and worked closely with the graphic designer, system admin and CEO

Professional Capital Services, Philadelphia, PA (February 2007 to April 2008) | <http://pcscapital.com>

Provider of retirement programs for the corporate, professional and governmental market

Position: MIS department assistant

- Assisted in development of company's automation tools
- Built custom desktop tools and databases for company's accounting department
- Performed daily backups for 4 servers
- Investigated and solved day-to-day user and system problems for 20+ employees

Publications, Activities and Awards

- Author of "Evaluating Web Frameworks: Django, Ruby on Rails and CakePHP", published by the Institute for Business and Information Technology (September 2009)
- DjangoCon attendee (2008, 2009)
- Awarded a scholarship for the research project on web frameworks by Temple University (September 2009)
- Webmaster of Association of Management Information Systems (2007-2008)
- Dean's List, Temple University, Department of Management Information Systems (2006)
- Member of Association for Computing Machinery (2005-2006)
- Awarded the Gold Medal (Valedictorian) for the outstanding achievement in learning, Russia (2001)

Foreign Languages

- Russian